Live Broadcast:

The sale will be broadcast live over the internet. See directions to register to bid on page 2.

Online Catalog:

cowcampcatalogs.com and dvauction.com

Registration Certificates:

Certificates will be provided to buyers upon request on sale day.

Feeding Arrangements:

Bulls can be fed for $2.50/day if left at the ranch longer than 10 days following the sale. Liability for death or injury of the bull will remain with the buyer during the feeding period.

Delivery:

We will deliver bulls for free within 300 miles for 15 days following the sale. If you request us to keep the bulls longer than 15 days, delivery arrangements will be made on an individual basis to accommodate our time schedule. Liability for death or injury of the bull will remain with the buyers.

Hoyt's Angus Guarantee:

All bulls selling over $3,000 or more are guaranteed for the first-year breeding season against injury. He will be covered with a 50% guarantee and the salvage value will be split 50/50. For example for a $3,000, $1,500 is covered by Hoyts and $1,500 is covered by the purchaser. Any salvage value will be shared half by Hoyts and half by purchaser. Breeding season is defined as 75 days after exposure. All claims for adjustment must be made by Oct. 1, 2016. The difference between salvage value and purchase price will be given in the form of a replacement bull of equal value if available, or credit toward a purchase in future sales. All claims must be inspected by a licensed veterinarian verifying tag numbers. Not responsible for death or neglect. This is not a mortality coverage as that is up to the buyer to insure his purchase at his discretion.

Hoyt Family

In Loving Memory – Vernon Hoyt

On Oct. 24, 2015, we lost a husband, dad, grandpa, great grandpa and friend. Vernon passed away after a very courageous battle of cancer surrounded by his family.

For the last 56 years, he was devoted to raising his Angus cattle, farming the land, and being a proud member of the American Angus Association. He thoroughly enjoyed working and was proud of everything he did. His immense love for the farm and ranch life was passed on to his children and grandchildren.

Vernon was known for his quick wit and one liners. He always had a story to share with everyone he met. Vernon was a strong and determined man.

We miss him every single day, and our lives will never be the same, but we know he would want us to carry on and get back to work.

Vernon and Sheila

In Tears We Saw You Sinking

In tears we saw you sinking and watched you fade away

Our hearts were really breaking but we could not make you stay.

*God watched you as you suffered,
he knew you had your share*

He tenderly closed your weary eyes and took you in his care.

But when we saw you sleeping peacefully free from pain

We could not wish you back to suffer that again.

Our hearts still ache with sadness and the secret tears still flow

What it meant to lose you only God will know.

To the place of rest we wander where we say a little prayer

No one knows the heartache as we turn and leave you there.
